In 2014, Catholic school parents paid $3.1 billion in fees to support their children’s education.

764,000 students attend 1,731 Catholic schools, which employ more than 91,000 staff.

In 2014, governments provided $7.5 billion in funding to support students in Catholic schools.

Catholic schools provide a balanced and holistic education.

To meet growing demand more than 70 new Catholic schools are planned for the next five years.

Catholic schools have been part of Australia’s education story for 200 years.

Catholic schools are committed to creating safe environments for all students, teachers and families.

Find out more at SchoolFundingFacts.com